Love From Louisville: Family to Family Refugee Relief

The hearts of our Compassionate City have been moved by the images of refugees attempting to arrive by boat or even swim to the nearest shores of Greece. Thousands of refugees are stranded and crammed in camps outside Athens and on nearby Greek islands.

The refugees are homeless, helpless, and hungry.

They have lost their families, their countries, their dignity.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Let's extend Compassionate Louisville halfway across the world by sending desperately needed clothing and toiletries. See complete list on the back. Please fold your NEW or GENTLY USED ITEMS, place them in an open box—ANY SIZE LARGE OR SMALL—(don't seal it) and drop it off at locations on the back or refer to...

LOVE from LOUISVILLE

UPS, at the request of Mayor Fischer, has generously offered to fly emergency items by air. But the refugees will need much more, and we need your help to fill a container to send by ship. This will include your donations, medical supplies donated by Supplies Over Seas, as well as dry food. (Thank You Sysco Louisville for nearly a 1/2-ton of macaroni.)

HERE'S WHAT YOUR FAMILY CAN DO:

- Gather a box of items listed on back of page or on the website or facebook page.
- Make a tax-deductible financial contribution to cover shipping costs to Supplies Over Seas, c/o Love From Louisville.

Jesuit Refugee Services in Athens, Greece, will receive and distribute your donations.

Watch the 20-minute documentary "4.1 Miles": A Greek coast guard captain pulls family after family, child after child, from the ocean and saved their lives. It was nominated for an Academy Award. It's on our website, or copy and paste in your browser: www.nytimes.com/2016/09/28/opinion/4-1-miles.html?_r=0
